Preface

It gives me immense pleasure to present the Annual Report for the year 2017-18. The report captures the progress made and tasks ahead in the journey towards our strategic goals and vision. The year not only eventful but also substantially added to the experience and learning of LKBK as team. Our sincere efforts during the period to bring about developmental changes continue unabated. So our belief in collective processes has only increased in this course.

The livelihood initiatives of LKBK have increased the life style of poor people in the rural area. Now rarely people wondering for food and in reality there is surplus of food near people. The farmers training & workshop encouraged farmers to adopt technique & knowledge to produce high-yielding crops with sustainability of land fertility. The women vocational training centre developed skill of women through its tailoring unit and agro unit and it created a way of earning. LKBK intervene with the issues on Gender discrimination, women and child rights, MGNREGA, RTI, Forest right Act, Right to food. Health issues in rural remote village are acute, LKBK initiated to intervene in these villages implementing HBNC Training programme of Newly Selected ASHAs, Training on Book Keeping to Women Self Help Group and organized Health awareness programme to develop knowledge on preparation of Health plan and documentation process.

The programmes we organize have, since inception reached to thousands of victims life across the project area. It is gratifying to see Tribal, Dalits, victims aspiring to transfer in to once with grater zeal, self confidence, determination and productivity.

I would like to thank all our donors for their support. We have got moral & strategic support .Without the effort & commitment of sincere staff and all our well-wishers it could be impossible to success the objectives of LKBK.

With Pleasure I present the Annual Report of the Organization for the Year 2017-18.

Thanking You

Puspita Pradhan
Secretary
